Print twice to use as matching cards. Cut and place in a small container. This material can be used for work time. You can also use this for vocabulary.
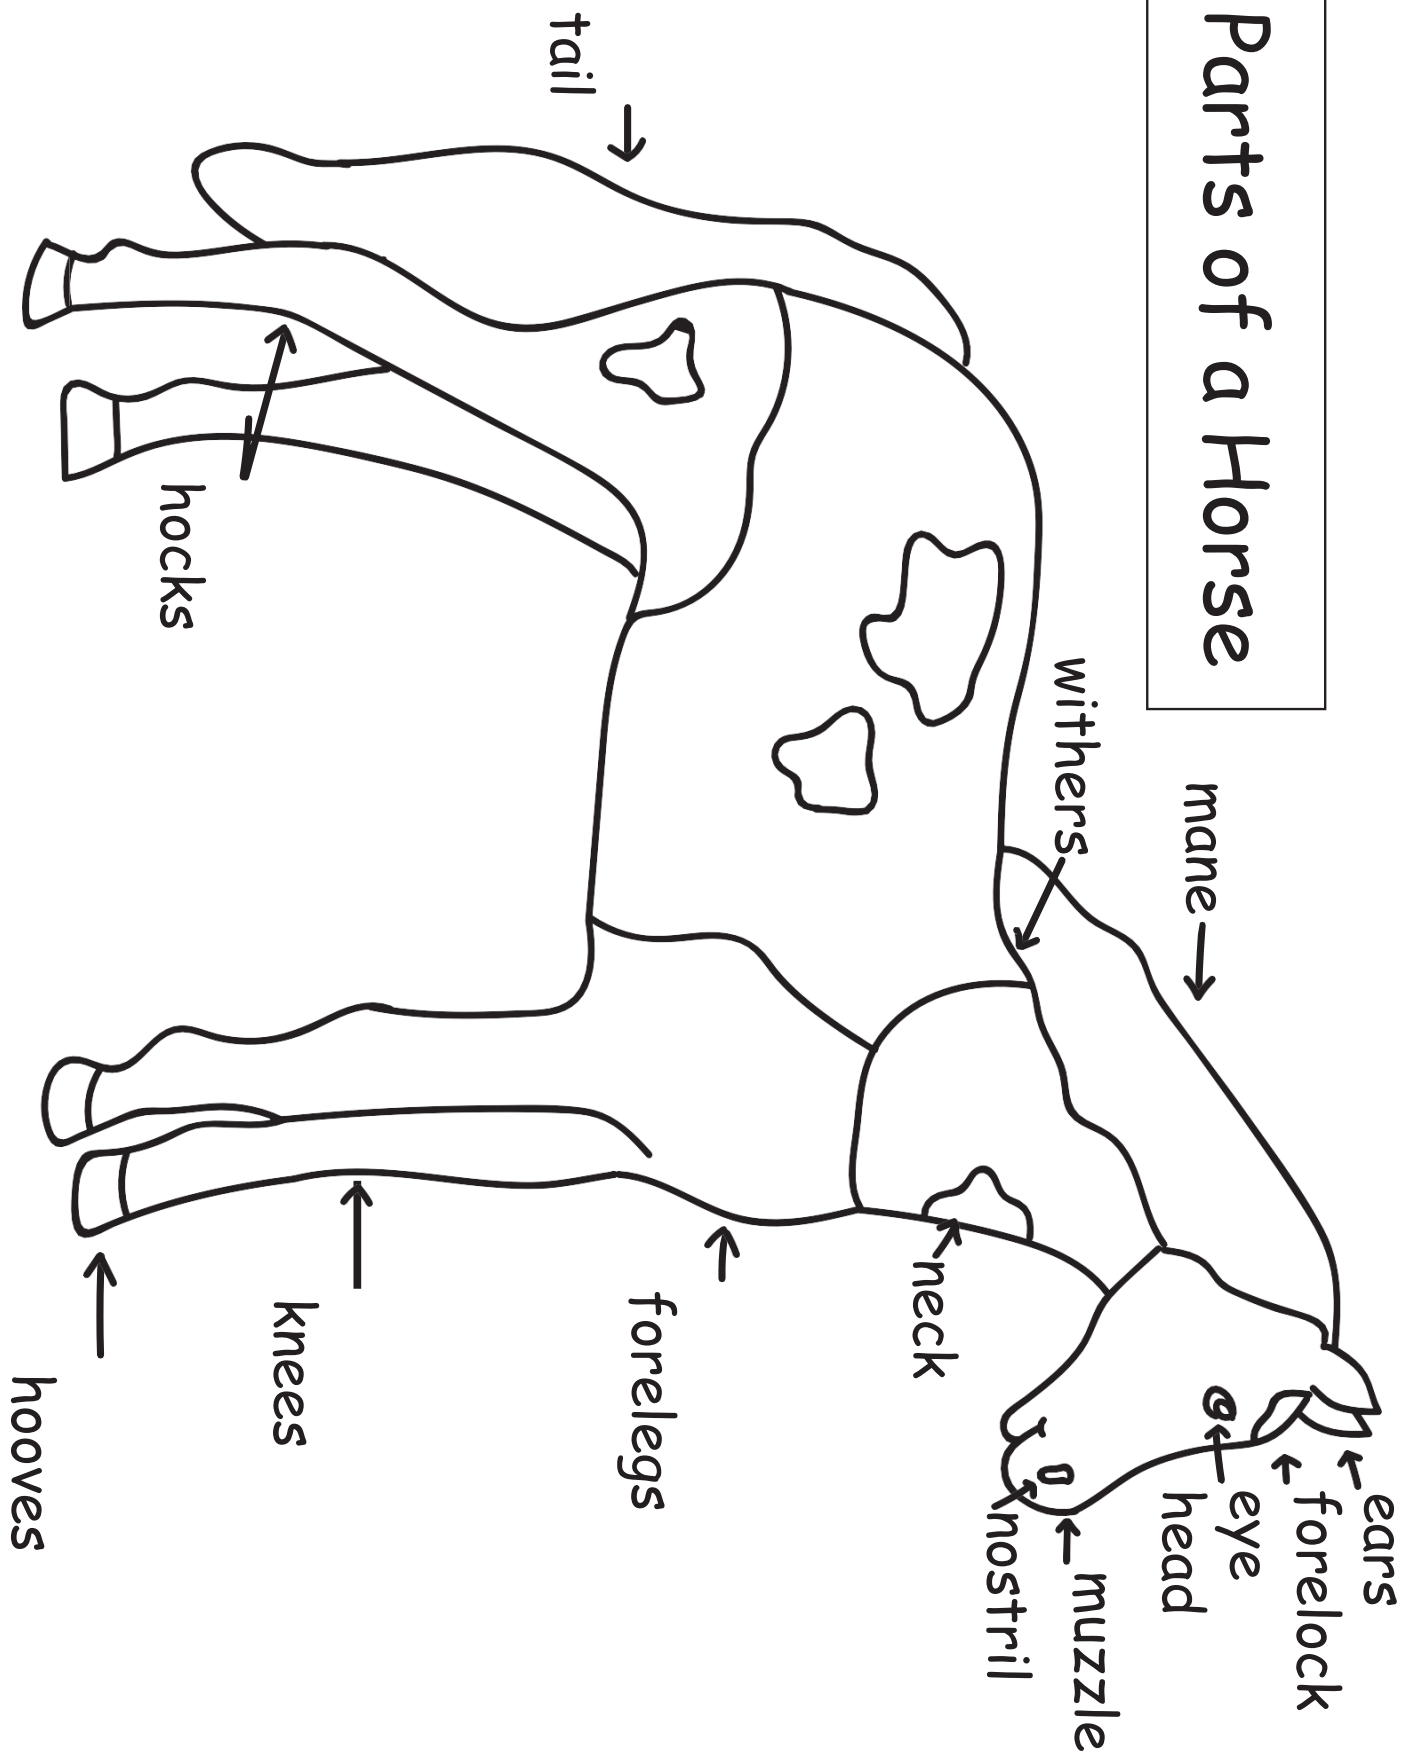

deer	bear	giraffe
sheep	horse	monkey
goat	anteater	whale

Parts of a Horse

tail

hocks

mane

withers

hooves
knees

forelegs

neck

nostril

muzzle
head

eye

forelock

ears

Characteristics of Mammals

Mammals are warm-blooded.

Mammals produce milk to feed their offspring.

Mammals have hair.

Mammals give birth to live young.

Instructions:
Fold in half horizontally. Cut along crease.
Fold half sheets together to make a booklet.

Cover page: Animal Research booklet
Page 1: Animal Name
Page 2: Habitat
Page 3: Vertebrate class:
Page 4: Locomotion
Page 5: Body Covering
Page 6: What I eat

Montessori Child Development Center

Animal Research Booklet
(Primary)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Habitat:

grassland

tundra

desert

mountain

temperate

freshwater

ocean

rainforest

Body covering:
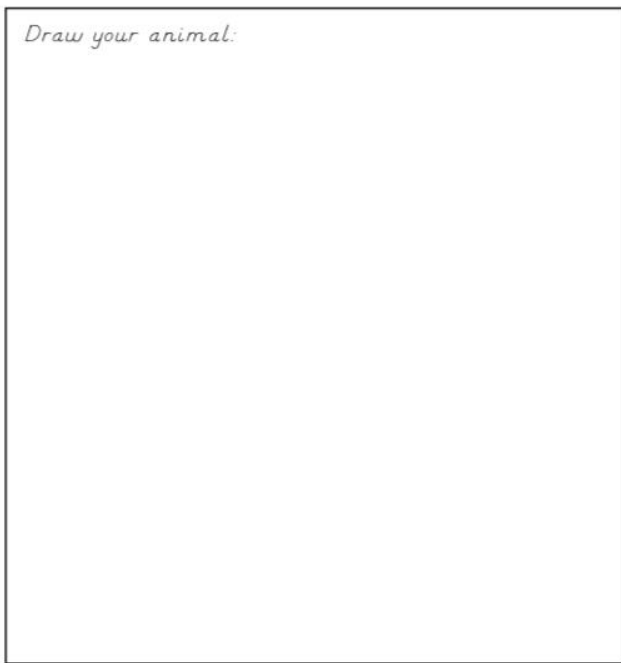

My body is covered with

hair

feathers

scales

fur

shells/exoskeleton

Animal Name :

_____

Draw your animal:

I am a

carnivore, herbivore, omnivore.

I eat (Draw in the box.)

Vertebrate class: Circle one.

fish

bird

amphibian

reptile

mammal

Locomotion:
I move:
Aquatic— in or on water
Terrestrial— on ground or surface
Arboreal — on trees
Aerial— in the air
Fossorial — underground

I have _____ legs.

Life Cycle of a Horse

Adults

Birth

Colt

Mother and foal

Memory Game: Color and cut the cats. Hide it in different areas in the living room. Look for them.

Math: Color and cut. Match with the numbers. Print twice to match to numbers 1-20.
1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20

Montessori Child Development Center